About the MIC

About Us

- The McGill Investment Club ("MIC") is McGill's largest comprehensive student-run investment organization
- The MIC aims to bridge the gap between the classroom and the financial workplace
- At the core, we proudly support the career preparation and investment education of McGill's best and brightest students
- The Investment Committee ("IC") is the core mandate of the club; however, the MIC also maintains a strong commitment to its various external events, such as the Global Stock Pitch Competition and Toronto and Montreal Finance Conventions

Women in Finance Convention

About the Women in Finance Convention

- This year marked the 2nd edition of the MIC's Women in Finance Convention
- The event was spread across three days and included: firm information sessions, workshops, a senior leader panel, networking luncheons, and a fireside chat
- Provided an opportunity for delegates to connect with other ambitious femaleidentifying students, professionals, and leaders in Canadian capital markets
- The convention acted as mechanism to demystify what various roles at financial institutions entail, as well as to increase access to those jobs for women at McGill by teaching students the skills needed to apply and succeed
- This year, the event included 50 delegates and 8 partnering firms

Toronto / Montreal Finance Conventions

Convention Overviews

- The Toronto Finance Convention and Montreal Finance Convention are the MIC's annual flagship Winter recruitment conventions
- Students meet alumni and representatives from firms through a variety of events, ranging from office tours and information sessions to networking cocktails and meals
- The conventions are a prime opportunity for students and firms to form connections ahead of recruiting cycles, and offer participants the opportunities to ask questions

Our History

 Our conventions have provided students a consistent pathway to recruit at top firms in Canada

Over the years, the conventions have significantly helped students land internships and full-time offers

Event Overview

GSP Competition Details

Description

- The MIC's Global Stock Pitch Competition is one of the largest of its kind in North America
- On March 30th, 2024, teams of 1-4 will compete for a prize pool of C$7,500
- The competition is open to all undergraduate students worldwide
- Interested students must register via the form on our website, then submit their pitch deck and a copy of their resumes to investmentclub@mail.mcgill.ca
- From there, 25 teams will be selected to compete in the event's semifinals
- Semifinalist teams will be distributed across 5 breakout rooms, and the winner of each breakout room will progress to the finals, which will take place in the afternoon
- The event will conclude with a speaker panel with representatives from the event's sponsors
- Following the speaker panel, the final standings and superlative winners will be announced
- Prizes will be distributed to the winners in the following weeks

Past Participating Schools

- As its name implies, the MIC's Global Stock Pitch Competition pulls competitors from across the world
- Last year, students from over 45 schools worldwide participated, including:

Past Judging Firms

- The semi-final and final rounds of the competition are judged entirely by representatives from leading global financial institutions
- Last year, 20+ judges participated in the event, with previous competition judges working at firms including:
